

Privacy Policy

Rationale

All staff of Brentwood Secondary College are required by law to protect the personal and health information the school collects and holds. The Victorian privacy laws, the Information Privacy Act 2000 and Health Records Act 2001, provide for the protection of personal and health information. The privacy laws do not replace any existing obligations Brentwood Secondary College has under other laws. Essentially this policy will apply when other laws do not regulate the use of personal information. This policy applies to members of school staff and the school council.

Purpose

Personal Information is collected and used by Brentwood Secondary College to:

- provide services or to carry out the school statutory functions,
- assist the school services and its staff to fulfil its duty of care to students,
- plan, resource, monitor and evaluate school services and functions,
- comply with the Department of Education and Training – Victoria (DET) reporting requirements,
- comply with statutory and or other legal obligations in respect to staff,
- investigate incidents or defend any legal claims against the school, its services or its staff, and
- comply with laws that impose specific obligations regarding the handling of personal information.

Guidelines

In this policy personal information refers to personal information, health information and sensitive information unless otherwise specified.

1. Definitions:

- Personal information means information or opinion that is recorded in any form and whether true or not, about an individual whose identity is apparent, or can be reasonably be determined from the information or opinion. For example this includes all paper and electronic records, photographs and video recordings.
- Health information is defined as including information or opinion about a person's physical, mental or psychological health, or disability, which is also classified as personal information. This includes information or opinion about a person's health status and medical history, whether recorded or not.
- Sensitive information is defined as information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union, or other professional, or trade association membership, sexual preferences, or criminal record that is also classified as personal information about an individual.
- Parent in this policy in relation to a child, includes step parent, an adoptive parent, a foster parent, guardian, or a person who has custody or daily care and control of the child.
- Staff in this policy is defined as someone who carries out a duty on behalf of the school, paid or unpaid, or who is contracted to, or directly employed by DET. Information provided to a school through job applications is also considered staff information.

2. Collection of Personal Information:

The school collects and holds personal information about students, parents and staff.

2.1 Students and Parents:

The purposes for which the school uses personal information of students and parents include:

- keeping parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling,
- looking after students' educational, social and health needs,
- celebrating the efforts and achievements of students,
- day-to-day administration,
- satisfying the school's legal obligations, and
- allowing the school to discharge its duty of care.

2.2 Staff:

The purposes for which the school uses personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- assessing the suitability for employment,
- administering the individual's employment or contract,
- for insurance purposes, such as public liability or WorkCover,
- satisfying the school's legal requirements, and
- investigating incidents or defending legal claims about the school, its services or staff.

3. Use and disclosure of the personal information provided:

Where consent for the use and disclosure of personal information is required, the school will seek consent from the appropriate person. In the case of a student's personal information, the school will seek the consent from the student and/or parent depending on the circumstances and the student's mental ability and maturity to understand the consequences of the proposed use and disclosure.

3.1 The school will use and disclose personal information about a student, parent and staff when:

- it is required for general administration duties and statutory functions,
- it relates to the purposes for which it was collected, and
- for a purpose that is directly related to the reason the information was collected and the use would be reasonably expected by the individual and there is no reason to believe they would object to the disclosure.

3.2 The school can disclose personal information for another purpose when:

- the person consents, or
- it is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious or imminent threat to life, health or safety or
- is required by law or for law enforcement purposes.

4. Accessing personal information:

- A parent, student or staff member may seek access to their personal information, provided by them, that is held by the school.
- Access to other information may be restricted according to the requirements of laws that cover the management of school records. These include the Public Records Act and the Freedom of Information Act.

5. Updating personal information:

The school aims to keep personal information it holds accurate, complete and up-to-date. A person may update their personal information by contacting the Principal or college Registrar.

6. Security:

School staff and students have use of information communication technologies (ICT) provided by the school. This use is directed by:

- DET's Acceptable Use policy for Internet, email, and other electronic communications.
- DET's IT Security Policy

7. Web Sites:

Information Collected regarding external access from the web to www.brentwood.vic.edu.au:

- The Brentwood Secondary College web server makes a record of e-mail addresses for parents who want newsletters sent by e-mail.

Information Collected regarding internal access to the internet:

- The proxy server keeps a log file which records the user, the domain address of the destination, the date, the time and the size of the download in bytes.

8. Complaints under Privacy:

Should the school receive a complaint about personal information privacy this will be investigated in accordance with DET's Privacy Complaints Handling Policy.

Evaluation

This policy will be regularly reviewed in consultation with members of the wider community as part of the school's Compliance and Strategic Planning cycle.
